SWRPC Brownfields Assessment Program Referral Form

This form is for bankers, real estate agents, or others to refer property owners or prospective buyers to the Southwest Region Planning Commission's Brownfields Assessment Program. Use this form if you know or work with someone who owns or is considering buying property that has known or perceived contamination on it. Our program may be able to clarify liability concerns, remove uncertainty about potential contamination, and ensure the landowner or prospective buyer is following "all appropriate inquiries" with respect to CERCLA/Superfund law.
